WILLIMANTIC FUNERAL.

James Frederick Coleman.

Following services at his home in Wallingford, the body of James Frederick Coleman was brought to this city Friday and taken to South Coventry, where burial was in the Nathan Hale cemetery. Mr. Coleman died Wednesday morning as the result of taking carbolic acid and subsequent hanging at his home. Dependence resulted from the loss of his work as shipping clerk for a medicine company at North-ford, through no personal fault, because the firm changed hands. Deceased was well known in South Coventry, having resided in the village up to six years ago. He was born Oct. 3, 1882, the son of the late Lathrop and Caroline Coleman of South Coventry.
Mr. Coleman at one time worked in Tracy's wool extract mill in the village and later was engaged in farming.
There survive a widow and three stepchildren.

James P. Mustard, W. M.

James P. Mustard, who has just assumed the duties of worshipful master of Eastern Star lodge, No. 44, F. and A.
M., was raised in Ancient lodge, No.
726, New York city, in December, 1891.
Soon after coming to this city he was admitted to membership in Eastern Star lodge, which office he held during 1908. In 1907 he was junior warden, and in 1908 and 1909 was senior warden. He is a member of Trinity chapter, No. 99, R. A. M., and Olive branch council, No. 10, R. and S. M., also St. John's commandery, No. 11, K.
T., all of this city.

He is also a member of Sphinx temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., of Hartford, Mr.
Mustard is foreman of Albert Hose Co., No. 1, W. F. D., and a former president of the Tread City Cyclers.

Deputy Inspector Wilbur Visits Town.
J. E. Wilbur of Meriden, deputy inspector of the G. A. R. for the department of Connecticut, was in town Friday calling on friends. He left here and went to Norwich, where he inspected Soudwick post, G. A. R., on Friday evening.

December Plowing.

Henry Witter, who owns and lives on the 17 acre farm on South street, is putting in his spare time these fine days plowing up the broad and fertile acres of the home place. He was business at the mill, but he is rather unusual for farmers to be able to thus steal a march on the rush work of spring at this season of the year.

DANIELSON

Nose Broken by a Fall—Vacation Begins—Eighth Grade Gives Stars and Stripes Jubilee—End of Centre St.
Brook as Sewerage Outlet.

Fred Kennedy will lead the meeting and Rev. Ralph S. Cushman will be the speaker at the men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon.

To Open Fifth Picture Theater.
Abel I. Reeves is to open another motion picture house at Monson, Mass. H. J. Richards of Danielson is to have charge of this fifth under the management of Mr. Reeves.
The theater is a new building, to be finished within a few days.

Another Broken Nose.
Mrs. Gertrude Gordon is a patient at the Day-Kimball hospital in Putnam as the result of a fall down stairs at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H.
Starkweather, which caused a broken nose. This is the second case of this kind of an injury to be noted in Danielson this week.

At the home of Mrs. E. C. Roberts on Broad street Friday afternoon a meeting of the Methodist Missionary society of the Methodist church was held.

Miss Mary Day has returned to Millersville for the winter, after spending several months with her parents near Danielson.

No More Use of Center St. Brook.
June 1, 1910, has been fixed as the date when all connections for emptying sewerage into the Center street brook must be discontinued. This practice of using the brook for a sewerage outlet has come to be regarded as a nuisance and a menace to public health, and the order of the court of burgesses fixing the time for a stopping of the practice is welcome news to many citizens. The order follows a protest to the state board of health and an investigation by Attorney George E. Hinman of Willimantic, county health officer.

The brook has been used as a sort of sewer for many years and now conditions have become so objectionable to citizens living about that section where the brook crosses Furnace street, and where the stench from it is oftentimes well near to intolerable that the protest was made, with the result indicated. If those using the brook as a sewer do not cease to do so by the time indicated, the courts may be called upon to issue an injunction to force the desired action.

Miss Roberta Horton of the high school faculty has gone to her home in Providence to spend the holiday vacation.

Miss Alice Abel is spending two weeks at her home in Stafford Springs.
Miss Hattie Brown of Dudley will be the speaker at the Advent chant at three o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. A. F. Wood attended the Pomona grange meeting in Norwich on Thursday.

Arthur Logee, carrier on rural route
No. 1, has a new rural route wagon.
Fred Bourke of the West Side, who cut an artery in his foot a few weeks ago had the wound break open while he was walking Friday morning and lost a considerable quantity of blood before the flow could be checked.

The local church choir are engaged with rehearsals of the music to be given at the Christmas concert.

Well Pleased Audience Witnessed Play.

The Man on the Box, with Wilmer Walter in the title role, was seen at the Town hall on Friday evening. The play was much better than the average attraction that comes to Danielson and was seen by a larger audience than is usual here.

Term Closes with Special Exercises.
The school children in the town of Killingly are all free and happy for the next two weeks. The term closed Friday morning. In the graded school in Danielson Christmas exercises were held to mark the closing of the term.

The grades had as guests at the exercises their parents and friends. In some of the rooms there were Christmas trees and a present for every child.

Stars and Stripes Jubilee.
Phoenix theater held a capacity audience Friday evening at the flag drill entertainment given by the members of the eighth grade of the school street school. The entertainment was announced as a Stars and Stripes jubilee and consisted of finely executed drills. The training of these participating was under the direction of Miss Ida J. Tripp, teacher in the eighth grade.

Score 13 to 12.
The score of the Putnam-Danielson basketball game, played in Hammond hall in Putnam on Thursday evening was 13 to 12, in favor of Putnam, not 30 to 12, as announced Friday morning.

Lighting up Dark Places.
The borough officials are continuing their good work of ordering electric street lights placed in sections of the borough where they are manifestly needed. The lights are to be placed at a point near the north boundary of the borough on Main street. The change in the arrangement of the lights on lower Main street is pleasing to the merchants doing business below the railroad crossing.

Fourth in Series.
The Tragedy of an Ancient Spiritualist will be the subject of Rev.
Ralph S. Cushman's sermon at the evening service at the Methodist church on Sunday evening. This sermon will be the fourth of a series given by Rev. Mr. Cushman on Tragic-dies of the Bible.

Owned Property in Killingly.
Myrtle Hall Millard has filed letters of application, asking that administration be granted on the estate of William A. Hall, of Killingly, Conn., Mass., and owner of property in the district of Killingly. A hearing to determine the granting of the application is to be held before Judge of Probate Gentry of the probate court a week from Monday.

Blaze on Roof.
The first alarm since April came in just before 3 o'clock Friday afternoon for a little blaze on the roof of a shed on the old Coddling property between Melville street and the railroad. Only a few shingles were burned on the building and the damage will be exceedingly slight. The fire was extinguished without the aid of the firemen.

To Enter Convent at Parkville.
Three Danielson young ladies will be received into the sisterhood of the Order of St. Joseph on January 4, at the convent of Mary Immaculate at Parkville, near Hartford; Miss Mary Calhoun, Miss Josephine Gaudette, and Miss Rose Gaudette.

Personals.
Mrs. Frank McDonald and daughter of Putnam, Mass., are guests of Mr.
McDonald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Head.
State Policeman Robert Hurley was in Danielson Friday.

PUTNAM

Town's Low Death Rate During November—City May Have Another Industry—Baptist Society's Christmas Sale.

Out of a total of 35 towns making monthly returns to the state board of health, Putnam had the lowest death rate per thousand in Connecticut during November. The rate was only 2.7 per thousand. This is an extraordinary showing and far below the average death rate for this section.

The total number of deaths in Putnam during November was two, and one of these was of a child less than one year of age. The other death was that of a non-resident, the unidentified man who was killed by the Boston bound express near the long bridge west of the station.

The number of cases of diphtheria were reported from Putnam during November out of a total of 260 cases in 49 towns. None of these cases proved fatal.

SALVATION ARMY

Planning Dinners for 150—Needs Christmas Toys for One Hundred and Thirty-Five Children.

One hundred and fifty people who really need assistance are to be given a Christmas dinner and one hundred and thirty-five children who have few of the purchasable joys of life are to be made happy on the great holiday if the good people of Putnam help Capt.
A. H. Withey of the Salvation Army to carry out his plans. This is to be a work of charity untroubled by denominational differences; an earnest sincerity to make happy all of the needy of Putnam, whoever they may be. The movement is well under way, but generous aid from citizens is necessary in order to do the work.

Captain Withey plans to distribute enough food for 150 dinners, and then, if possible, it is desired to make gifts of toys to the children. Warm clothing is also being solicited. Captain Withey is deeply interested in the movement and is receiving encouragement and help. Contributions have commenced to come in, but many more are needed. Up to date this season Captain Withey has distributed several barrels of vegetables and like necessities among the poor and has been able to give them some clothing.

EVENING OF MUSIC

At Congregational Church Under Auspices of Ladies' Social Circle.

There was an evening of music at the Congregational church Friday under the auspices of the Ladies' Social circle that was particularly pleasing.
The numbers on the programme, which was in charge of Mrs. W. J. Bartlett, included readings which were all of nature to appeal to all and all were very well given. Miss Eunice W. Park, contralto, was heard again in Putnam at the concert.

The programme follows, Miss C. I.
Torrey, violinist; Mrs. Gertrude C.
Warner, cellist; and Mrs. E. M. Warner, pianist, making up the orchestra trio:

Selection, Ladies' Orchestral Trio.
a. At the Chantry Fair, Cooke Riley
b. The Runaway Boy, Miss Drouet.

a. Don't You Mind the Sorrows, Cooke
b. Because, Miss Park.

a. Encouragement, Dumbor Slosson
b. Scare o' Drin', Miss Drouet.

Score Was 13-12.
Through an error in Friday's Bulletin the score of the Putnam-Danielson basketball game played in Hammond hall was given as 30 to 12 instead of 13 to 12 in favor of Putnam.
Elmer Fred Knight's Death.

Elmer Fred Knight, class of 1909, Putnam High school, is dead at the home of A. R. Cole, a relative, at Harringtonville, N. H. Knight died after an illness with tuberculosis. He was manager of the basketball team and a favorite among his classmates. Mr. Knight came to Putnam several years ago from California. He leaves no near relatives, his father and mother being dead.

Worsted Weaving Industry Projected.
It is said that a plan for establishing a small worsted weaving industry in the Fisher shoe factory is contemplated by local men.

Glimpse of Silver Fox.
F. Walden Wright and E. C. Sabin began their saw a silver fox on Friday farm on Friday. A bound chase the animal up over a side hill, where they were engaged in doing some surveying. Both had a good look at the fox, which they describe as dark colored, with a white tipped bush.

Miss Isabelle Byrne of the nurses' training school, Roosevelt hospital, New York, is at her home in Putnam for the holidays.

Holiday Sale.
The ladies of the Baptist church held their annual Christmas sale in the assembly room of the church on Friday afternoon. Many sales of fancy articles, hand painted china, etc., were made. From 5 until 8 o'clock a bean supper was served.

Merely Rumored.
If the talk of change in running arrangements on the electric line becomes effective, the Worcester division cars running south as far as West Thompson or Putnam, it will probably mean the use of one less car in the daily service and one less car in the nightly service on the Putnam division, reducing the number of car crews by two. The hourly service over the shorter run could be maintained with one less car. The change, however, has not yet been announced.

Notes.
A civil service examination for persons desiring the office of postmaster at West Thompson is to be held at the Putnam postoffice Jan. 8.

The Providence bridge is being replanked; also the highway bridge at West Thompson.

Social and Personal.
Miss Eunice Park of Stafford is the guest of Mrs. W. J. Bartlett.
Miss S. Elizabeth Clarke was the guest of friends in Worcester on Thursday.

Dorcas Bartlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bartlett, is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.
Mrs. Florence Bolham and her daughter Charlotte were in Worcester on Thursday.

Mrs. L. O. Williams and Mrs. Joseph McKachnie spent Thursday in Worcester.

Reuben Sykes, who has been confined to his home on Bradley street the past week by illness, was able to be out on Friday.

Phyllis Sykes has recovered from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. P. P. Wilson is the guest of Misses in Bridgeport.
Mrs. L. O. Williams has been entertaining Mrs. Alma Sibney of Warren, R. I.

JEWETT CITY

Churches to Anticipate Christmas with Special Music—Principal Swift's Memory Honored.

Coming Games.
Manager Langus has secured the strong Sterling team for Monday night, December 20. From the appearance of the line up it will make a strong and interesting game. The Ma-land and Keech played with Danielson last night.

White Gravy.
White gravy, such as is so often served at certain hotel foods and fine home dishes is prepared as follows: Melt butter without browning in a saucepan
